Senior adult day set

Senior Adult Day will be observed in the Liberty Chapel Baptist Church located on RFD 3, Appomattox, Va. on Sunday, May 3. The morning worship hour at 11 a.m. will recognize and honor older adults for their strategic service in the church and community.

"Since senior adults, age 60 and above, represent approximately one-fifth of our congregation, the Liberty Chapel Baptist Church pays tribute and expresses appreciation to them on this special occasion, "states Pastor J. N. Williams.

CPR class set

A CPR class will be held in the Pamplin Fire House Monday and Tuesday nights, May 4 and 5, starting at 7 p.m. each evening.

Those wishing to take the class must register before May 1. Registration may be achieved by calling 248-6484.

In order to receive CPR certification, students must attend both nights of class.

Gospel singing planned

The Ladies' Auxilary of Vera Church of God is sponsoring a gospel singing on Saturday, May 2 starting at 7:30 p.m.

Clyde and Doris, the "Singing Burrells," will be the special guest singers.

Others from local churches will be singing also. Everyone is invited to attend.

Consider Finishing Two Bedrooms Upstairs In Your Free Time

DESIGN FOR EXPANSION

FEATURE HOMES

© By W. D. FARMER

By offering a fully adequate home on the main floor, there is the prospect of finishing upstairs bed rooms as your family needs occur.

From the wide foyer are the large separate living room and dining room to either side. Both are endowed with surplus wall space for a variety of furniture arrangements and they are located out of the path of daily wear and tear. The stair will encompass upper and lower level access within the same area, the stair to the second floor is enhanced by an attractive open hand rail.

The family room provides spaciousness for family activity and includes rear terrace access and cozy fireplace. The rear breakfast room is adjacent and includes triple window for view. The kitchen is popular, being U-Shape with extra wall cabinets. A breakfast bar is included and built-in appliances are provided.

The main floor includes the master bed room with private full bath, powder room and large walk-in closet.

The center bed room is adequate for nursery or guests. Central bath is directly across the hall. This room services daytime use also.

The double side-entry car port is from the private entry and an extra pantry is located here too. The laundry area is adjacent and rear access is indicated.

There are two identical bed rooms upstairs, each with large walk-in closet. A central bath services these rooms.

The front is farm colonial with horizontal siding and stone accents. Front wall changes for B front pictured are indicated on actual working drawings.

All W.D. Farmer plans include special construction details for energy efficiency, and are guaranteed to meet F.H.A. and V.A. regulations. The plan is number 2436B. It includes 2,405 square feet of living area. For further information on this plan, write W.D. Farmer Residence Designer, Inc., P.O. Box 49463, Atlanta, Ga. 30359.

Mt. Pleasant news

By ODELL CHAMBERS

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need. Hebrews 4:16.

There were services at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church last Sunday. Rev. Wendell Brown of Hampden-Sydney, Va. was our guest speaker. Text was: Deb in Isaiah 43:2. Theme was "The Lord will make a way somehow". Our pastor, Rev. Napier was present. He sang with the Young Adult Choir, the "Sunbeam" song, two selections. The sermon and the music was just beautiful. Pulpit guest were, Rev. Deb Christian, Rev. Boyd Christian, Rev. H. O. Flood and our son in the ministry, Rev. John Edward. It was a beautiful crowd. Everyone enjoyed the message.

The Ladies Aid Club will be celebrating their anniversary the second Sunday in May at 5 p.m. We are inviting different church clubs to come and help us celebrate.

The Ideal Spirit Singers of Rice, Va. will be at church Sat., May 2 at 7 p.m. Sponsors, Mrs. Virginia Goode and Christine Washington. Come and hear this great group.

Business workshop set

A workshop for prospective business owners will be held on May 12, 1981 (Tuesday) from 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. at the Sheraton Inn on Odd Fellows Road in Lynchburg.

This workshop will be held for individuals who have an interest and desire to go into business for themselves as well as those present small business owners who would like to update their skills and knowledge in business management.

The purpose of this workshop is to give participants a better understanding of what is required in starting their own business, so their chance of success will be greatly increased.

Among the topics to be discussed are organization and planning, location, estimating capital requirements, sources of financing, business regulation, taxes, insurance, management factors, and the availability of outside assistance and advice. Ample time will be available for questions and answers.

The cost of registration is $15.00 to cover refreshments, lunch and materials. For information concerning registration please call Bruce Fall or John Moon at 352-5317 or Mr. Carter at 352-8251. Please register in advance because class enrollment will be limited.

Cashier-checker classes set

The Marketing and Distributive Education Department at Appomattox County High School will be holding Cashier-Checker classes for adults who desire training for future job placement or an upgrading of their skills in their present position.

This course is designed for those individuals in a career in food relations or in any self-service operation on a part time or full time basis. Employers realize the cashier may well have more direct contact with the customer than any other employee and his/her ability to operate a cash register and deal positively with customers is of extreme importance to their success in a business.

The Cashier-Checker class will meet on Tuesday and Thursday evenings (7:00-9:30) May 5th - 28th in room 304 at Appomattox County High School. For more information please call Bruce Fall or John Moon at 352-5317 or Mr. Carter at 352-8251. Please register in advance because class enrollment will be limited.

WOW sets Radio Day

The Woodmen of the World - Camp 71 here in Appomattox will conduct a "W.O.W. Radio Day" June 20 through the cooperation of radio station WTTX FM 107. Members of local camp will take over the radio station for that day.

In the next coming weeks members of W.O.W. Camp 71 will be conducting a drive to solicit advertisements from local businesses here in the area to support this activity.

Proceeds from the sale of these advertisements will go to the many community projects that are being supported by the fraternalism of Wooderaft such as: Local Fire/Rescue Units, Dixie Youth Association, Special Olympics, Churches/Civic Organization (Placement of Christian and American Flags). Special benefit drives, crutches, walkers and wheelchairs for disabled, etc.

All community support of this activity would be appreciated. Remember to have your advertisement ready when your local Camp 71 members call.

Help Keep Appomattox County Clean And Beautiful

Let's have a bash.....let's clean up the trash.....

In Appomattox, Pamplin, and rural communities in the county.

Again this year, students in the various schools will be working together for a cleaner community as part of the annual Clean Up Week, May 2 - 9. Appomattox Primary School Students are shown above as they cleaned up the school grounds last year as part of the campaign.

A county map is in the office of Bill Caldwell just waiting to be filled with green lines....a green line designates that an organization, group or club has accepted the responsibility for cleaning that given area. Let's fill the map with green lines!

If your church, civic, or community organization is interested in joining the county clean-up campaign next week call the office of Bill Caldwell, 352-8183
